

Communications Committee Responsibilities

The Communications Committee has existed as a task force since February 2013, and is now a committee of session. Responsibilities specific to the pastoral transition, under the umbrella theme "WPC: Writing the Next Chapter" are:

1. Act as liaison between Transition Committee and congregation in communicating matters relating to the pastoral transition, in a concise, timely and appropriate manner
2. Act as liaison between Session and congregation in communicating matters relating to the pastoral transition, in a concise, timely and appropriate manner
3. Discern which matters are to be communicated to entire congregation, and which are to be communicated to members only
4. Discern the best communications vehicle for each communication. Vehicles include:
 - Targeted emails
 - General emails
 - US mail
 - WPC website
 - Sunday bulletin
 - Sunday slide presentation
 - Pulpit announcements
 - Monthly newsletter (The Communicant)
 - Signs/banners
 - Newspaper and community ads
 - Facebook
